

BEFORE I could get relief from my terrible blood disease, I had spent hundreds of dollars trying various remedies and physicians, some of whom did me a good deal of harm, and my health was so bad that I was nearly blind.

HOT SPRINGS. Hoping to be cured by this celebrated treatment, but very soon became discouraged, and decided to try Dr. Price's Pink Pills. The effect was truly wonderful. I commenced taking the first bottle, and by the time I had taken the second bottle I was entirely cured—cured by Dr. Price's Pink Pills. I am now well and strong, and I feel like I have been born again.

OTHER STATE NEWS.

A Man Burned to Death in a Fire at Washington.

NEWTON, Oct. 30.—A bold burglary was committed by a man who can be identified by parties that saw him hanging about the scene of the burglary.

The burglar effected an entrance to Receiver John V. Voss's office by means of a blank key. Mr. Voss' desk was pried open by means of a hatchet and the drawers and pigeon holes inventoried. A supply of stamps was taken, but nothing further was disturbed. The burglar then entered Judge L. P. Spencer's office, which opens into the receiver's office. A safe, which he never kept locked, was opened. A ten dollar note and some silver, amounting in all to about $20 were taken. A gold watch was also taken from the drawer. Checks and other collateral in the drawer were not disturbed.

A FRIGHTFUL RUNAWAY.

A Young Man at Wellington Hadly Hurt by Being Thrown From Wagon.

WELLINGTON, Oct. 30.—A serious and what may prove a fatal accident occurred in front of the court house here. A team hitched to a wagon, and driven by a young man named Curdrey, became frightened just east of the court house and started west on Tenth street at full speed. Just as they were in front of the court house, the wagon tongue dropped to the ground and caught beneath the crossing there. With the team running at full speed, the result of course was a violent upheaval of the wagon, throwing the young man headlong clear over the horses. One of his collar bones was broken and the shoulder blade was badly crushed, and a portion of the broken bone entered one of his lungs.

LIFE LOST IN A FIRE.

A Livery Stable at Washington Burns and a Stable Hand Dies in It.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 30.—The livery barn used by Ira Mathews, in the heart of the city, was burned to the ground, together with the adjoining residence, occupied by Mr. Mathews and family. Two young men, Fred Cole and Harvey Barnes, were sleeping in the stable office, and attempted to go out into the barn and release the horses. They ventured too far, and were soon overcome and driven back by the heat and smoke. Barnes managed to stagger out, but Cole was suffocated and burned to death. Ten horses and many vehicles were destroyed.

YOUNG PRESBYTERIANS.

Those of the Highland Presbyterian Have a Three Day's Meeting.

BLUE RAPIDS, Oct. 30.—The convention of the young people of the Highland Presbyterian, embracing six counties, has just closed a three day's session. Seventy delegates were in attendance. There was a reception at the Mesa under the auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. The prominent speakers were Dr. McFarland, president of Highland university, Rev. Mr. Allison, Holton; S. P. Bailey, Leavenworth; Miss Emma Kaul, Holton. The officers elected were: President, C. A. Atchell, Blue Rapids; vice president, M. Atwater, Atchison; secretary, Miss Jessie Rowland, Paralel; superintendent, junior work, Miss Lottie Wheeler, Blue Rapids.

USED COFFEES FOR A BAR.

An Emporia Jointist Kept His Store of Liquors in Coffins.

EMPORIA, Oct. 30.—A peculiar method of evading the prohibitory law was revealed in the district court here in the case of Richard Brisco. He has been accused and arraigned several times on a charge of selling intoxicants, but in every instance a search of his premises has resulted in finding no liquor or other illegal liquids.

On Saturday last, however, his store of beverages was found in several coffins in an undertaking establishment connected with his other business. He was released under $500 bond to appear at the next term of court.

Without a liberal supply of Dr. Price's Baking Powder no modern cooking school is adequately equipped.

A RUNAWAY BOY.

An 8 or 9 Year Old Boy Found at Emporia Who Has No Destination.

EMPORIA, October 30.—Agent Martin turned over to the sheriff, a small boy about 8 or 9 years of age, who gave his name to be Oliver Day and who claims to live in Lawrence, Kas. The boy says he came here to visit a family by the name of Allen, who he says live seven miles from Emporia, but as the boy did not seem to be anxious to get to Emporia and continued to stay around the depot sleeping there of nights and not seeming to have any friends here. Mr. Martin thought best to notify the officers, and they took the lad in charge and he was sent home to Lawrence.

It is thought the boy ran away from home.

COACH COWAN HURT.

Rev. Hector Cowan Dashed by a Hard Tackle in the Football Game.

LAWRENCE, Oct. 30.—Rev. Hector Cowan, coach of the Kansas University team, was seriously hurt in the Kansas-Ottawa football game last Saturday.

An Ottawa player grabbed him by the leg and then Taylor, the big Kansas-Ottawa man, also tackled him and threw him hard and in such a way that his head was badly jarred. It was several minutes before Cowan was able to get up at all, but he resumed and played out the game, although in a dazed manner. Just before the bell died in the center of the field at the close, he asked Armour, who was nearest him, "what score had been made and what half of the game that was?" He had gone through the game mechanically and swooned at the close, and was unconscious for a long time Saturday night.

He was much improved today, but was obliged to keep in bed all day.

R/10 Robbers at Fort Scott.

FORT SCOTT, Oct. 30.—Two men last night entered the Star steam laundry on National avenue, one of the business streets of this city, and made an attempt to hold up M. C. Moore, the proprietor, who was alone in the office at the time. One of the fellows grabbed him by the arm, but Mr. Moore secured a heavy loaded club and the would-be robbers ran out of the office and disappeared around a corner.

Brakeman's Rib Broken.

EMPORIA, Oct. 30.—John H. Jones, son of J. O. Jones, who was breaking on a freight train, met with a serious accident at Emporia. While he was standing on the tender, the engine started and he lost his balance and fell backwards, striking his side on a large lump of coal and breaking one of his ribs.

Snow at Leavenworth.

LEAVENWORTH, Oct. 30.—Snow fell here at intervals all yesterday afternoon. It was the first snow of the season in this section and it came at an unusually early day. The snow that was sifted down was not flaky, but in the shape of tiny balls. Enough fell to whiten the pavements for a few minutes.

Burned $145 in Bills.

WELLINGTON, Oct. 30.—Fire Sunday night destroyed the residence of J. Gephart. The fire caught from a lamp in the kitchen and spread so quickly that only one trunk was saved. Mr. Gephart had $145 in paper currency in the house and it was burned.

Crushed by a Windmill.

WICHITA, Oct. 30.—Mrs. J. C. Hyde, wife of a prominent farmer of the northern part of this county, was instantly killed by a windmill, which was blown over by the wind and fell on her.

Well Known Salina Man Dies.

SALINA, Oct. 30.—Marion J. Wellisager, a prominent citizen and capitalist of this city, died yesterday of pulmonary consumption. He was forty-nine years old and had resided here sixteen years.

Small savings make great fortunes. No economy so helpful as that attained by using Dr. Price's Baking Powder.

WILL HELP WEAVER.

"Silver Dick" Bland Will Make Speeches in Iowa.

LEBANON, Mo., Oct. 30.—R. P. Bland closed his campaign with a speech in the court house at this place. He discussed the tariff and financial questions at length, and scored the Democratic senators from Louisiana for their part in the defeat of the house tariff bill. He expressed regret for the attitude of President Cleveland on the silver question, which, he predicted, would be the issue in 1896, and that the Democracy of the west and south would win on it. The free coinage of silver, he said, was bound to come and Democracy would be triumphant in the next national election on a platform declaring unequivocally for free coinage and free trade.

Mr. Bland leaves tomorrow for Iowa to make a few speeches for Gen. J. B. Weaver, the Populist candidate for congress.

Reverend of Enterprise.

"That was a good article you had in the paper this morning, Mr. Wronder, giving the details of the methods by which an expert burglar opens a combination lock without having to blow the safe to pieces," said the editor. "I have instructed the cashier to give you $10 extra for it. Sorry to part with you, Mr. Wronder, but we shall not need your services any longer."

"Wh-what?" gasped the reporter.

"You give me $10 extra for that article and then discharge me?"

"Yes, sir. I discharge you for knowing how to write it."—Chicago Tribune.

Disappointment.

"Our hero sat in the corner of the railway compartment devouring his newspapers," read Miss Myrtle Dolan from the last acquisition to her paper cover library. "He was devouring them." "His newspaper, the book says," replied Myrtle. "Go wan wid yez. Oi tought 'twor a mon ye wor readin about, an now, be the powers, he turns out to be a goat!"—Burlington (Ia.) Gazette.

PARKHURST TO REDS.

The Doctor Addresses Rampant New York Anarchists.

To Enlist Them in Cause of Good Government.

EMMA GOLDMAN THERE

He Wanted Them to Work Against Tammany.

Said They Could Certainly Agree on Some Things.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Dr. Parkhurst concluded last evening's series of meetings by appearing before a gathering of the most rampant wing of anarchists of New York and endeavoring to enlist their service in the cause of honest government. There were Emma Goldman, recently released from Blackwell's Island; Esther R. Martink, also late of Blackwell's Island; Marie Comsky, Mme. Michaud, Mrs. E. Rauff, Mrs. Eliza Beth Harris, Mrs. Sadehik Bartman, Dr. Row, Bishopa Moran, Harris and many others of the more flamboyant lights of anarchy.

The meeting was at the home of Mme. Marc Louise Davis, No. 179 Waverly place. The nominal purpose of the meeting was to organize what might be called a radical branch of the woman's municipal league, to have for its mission work against Tammany Hall and for good government among the people of the east side who have socialistic leanings.

The doctor talked earnestly to the people gathered, telling them that however much he might differ from them on many matters, there were others on which they could agree. It was in this spirit he would talk. They agreed on the proposition that the government of the city of New York is not what it ought to be.

He proposed that they join with the other good folks in trying to make it better.

In the cuisines at all the fashionable summer resorts Dr. Price's Baking Powder is preferred to any other.

ONE SMALLPOX DEATH.

One Death and One New Case are Reported at Washington.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 30.—One death from smallpox, one new case and one new suspected case have been reported to the health officer today. William Owens of the interior department who has been in the hospital for several days died today. Van Buren Norwood, a clerk in the census bureau, which is connected with the interior department was stricken at his home at Hyattsville, Md., a suburb of Washington, and investigation by a surgeon of the marine hospital bureau verified the suspicion that he had smallpox.

The suspected case is that of another interior department clerk, who resides at Garrett Park, a suburban village, but the nature of his disease has not been determined.

Every case so far developed is directly traceable to Judge Costao, the father of the child who died of what was reported to be chicken pox.

A CHARMING ADDRESS.

Dr. E. C. Ray Speaks to Sixty People on the Subject of Culture.

Sixty people attended the lecture by Rev. Dr. E. C. Ray on "Culture" at the residence of Jonathan Thomas, on Harrison street, last night. Dr. Ray's lecture was a most able one and showed thought and preparation. He began by tracing the word culture back to its original agricultural meaning, and said that tilling of the soil was the original culture. He urged that the culture of the mind be not despised and said the earliest traces of culture could often be seen in the cheap chrome on the wall in a farmhouse. Science, he said, was not culture. Neither is refinement although they both attend and illuminate it. Culture is the storage of truths in the mind, and living up to them. It is the opening of the windows of the soul towards heaven. Dr. Ray added that the chances of a college bred man for success were 250 to 1. Mr. Ray's address was along the line of his present work, that of the educational branch of the Presbyterian church, educating ministers and building up weak colleges.

Alfred A. Farland is astonishing the critics in the large cities by rendering such works as Beethoven's sonatas, the overture to William Tell and Mendelssohn's great concerto op. 64, etc., on the piano. Farland will appear at Library Hall, Thursday, Nov. 1, and will be supported by the best local talent. A program of unusual excellence will be rendered and a most enjoyable evening is assured all who attend. The concert is under the auspices of the Imperial Banjo club. BREAD WONT GET CHEAPER

Chicago Bakers Say They Will Not Reduce the Price.

CHICAGO, Oct. 30.—The leading local bakers say there is no immediate prospect of the Chicago consumer getting his bread at a reduced figure, this in spite of the fact of 80-cent wheat and a consequent decline in the price of flour. The Chicago makers of bread are as a rule skeptical in regard to reports of reduced prices in New York and larger loaves for the old price in Washington. There are some who say if there have been reductions in those cities, they have been due to competition, and not to any cheapening of materials.

"Flour will have to go down to a much lower price before bakers can afford to reduce the price of bread," said a leading baker this morning. "A baker's war is the only thing which would bring about lower prices, and there is nothing in the local situation which suggests a condition."
